SCOOP SNOOPS!!!

SCOOPSECRETAGENT # 13 reports that while working in an Indiana County Hospital she was assigned to work the prison ward. Her job of delivering trays to the cells did NOT prepare her for this shocker --- One inmate was to have a paper plate-NO silver- NO glasses - NO MEAT! --- She stepped into the cell to be confronted by a SOMETHING that "leaped" at her! It looked like HALF-ANIMAL and Half - You-Name-It.... It was chained to the wall... she screamed and ran from the cell after observing that 'it' wore a diaper and T shirt - was DARK SKINNED VERY LITTLE HAIR - HIGH FORHEAD - SHARP FEATURES and was the size of an 8 or 10 year little boy... It garbled and grunted - it's lips did not move.. and it ate all the PAPER and drank some mild milk - REFUSED and threw soup on the floor!!! SHE WAS TOLD THE CASE WAS "CLASSIFIED"..... It was also reported that it had a most peculiar SMELL which enveloped the entire room..... The "Wolf Boy" returneth????? * DID YOU KNOW?? "What scientists call the CONTINENTAL DRIFT was REALLY the result of the earth and water being shaken by God... and the QUAKE created an ice barrier that SO SURROUNDS THE EARTH TODAY???? PLUS - IT IS A "PLATTER-SHAPED" EARTH?? THE ICE PREVENTS PEOPLE, SHIPS AND PLANES FROM FALLING OFF.... (Hmmm) - THIS is NOT all, Gentle Reader! ONLY ONE CONTINENT WAS DRIVEN BEYOND THAT ICE AGE BARRIER, AND FROM THAT 'LOST CONTINENT' COME ALL THE REPORTS OF "FLYING SAUCERS". THEY ARE MANNED BY OUR LONG -LOST (and presumably, somewhat chilly) PREHISTORIC COUSINS..... YOU don't agree?? Take up the fight with Samuel Shelton and the FLAT EARTH SOCIETY! Remember the Mine disasters recently in JAPAN and Mexico?? CONSIDER: " EARTH BELCHES GAS FORCING 16 FAMILIES TO FLEE" ---"It's like looking at ONE BILLION B.C." "GAS BUBBLES ARE ABOUT AS BIG AS BASKETBALLS BUT THE GEYSERS (?) ARE ALMOST GONE".. (that's a QUOTE for you!) ... "JAMES WOODRUFF, a geologist said the location of the NATURAL gas pocket was NOT KNOWN, but he said he was CERTAIN there were NO RUPTURED GAS LINES IN THE AREA."... THIS WAS IN NOVEMBER, 1968... LOCATION: in the fields around the KALAMAZOO RIVER, MICHIGAN..... The mines were TOO gassy also.  LIGHTNING HITS JET TWICE! --- ROME --- A British-European Airlines Comet with about 50 persons aboard was STRUCK TWICE as it LANDED at NAPLES AIRPORT from MALTA..... WHO was it that said it couldn't be done????! CHARMING NEWS HERE FROM WILLOW CREEK WINDOW -- ; Seems Perry Adams found a 'LITTLE BIGFOOT' when digging around his garden recently... The perfect replica, a STONE, is formed just like the PLASTER CASTS made of 'Bigfoot' prints in the BLUFF CREEK area... He donated his find to Al Hodgson's 'BigFoot' Museum! I still say - California gets 'em all...! BUT- Winston K. Morgan says HE found AFRICA'S 'MAN-BEAST'! READ: MEN for Feb. 1969..... SURVEY SINKS LEGEND! COPACABANA, BOLIVIA --- An eight week underwater survey of LAKE TITICACA has DESTROYED the legend that the lake is bottomless or that it conceals GOLD or Hidden Palaces in its depths.! Studies made in two miniature subs by a 17 man team headed by Cmdr. Jacques Cousteau indicate that the lake is no more than 230 meters deep, and conceals little more than LARGE TOADS and some interesting geological formations...(Drat!)  HOWEVER - TREASURE HUNTING FOR FUN AND PROFIT CAN BECOME A 'DEADLY' GAME.... WITNESS: "Three men sacrificed a 50 year old carpenter to a HINDU GODDESS in the belief that it would lead them to a HIDDEN TREASURE in Jaipur, India... The trio cut the carpenter's head and throat -- sprinkled his blood over a sacrificial fire to appease the Goddess Chamundi Mata... They began digging for the treasure but were frightened away... (Wonder what could have upset them?) Could they have had a damaged "COMBAT EMPLACEMENT EVACUATOR"-- FRIENDS, THAT'S A SHOVEL (!) According to the U.S. Government! Of course, you can lean it up against an "IMPACT ATTENUATION DEVICE" -- (that's an old oil drum placed around highway constructions! and- THAT'S just TCOOOOO much!) scoop OUT for MAY!

SAUCER SCOOP POLICY: To print BOTH sides of any controversial aspect in the general field of UFOLOGY. To give BOTH equal space and opportunity to express their viewpoints. To always remeber: TRUTH IS -- and an INFORMED PUBLIC -- WILL NOT PANIC.....

OMEGA RESEARCH ORGANIZATION

INTERNATIONAL ORO LETTER ---- NO. 1

(A subsidiary of IRI ASSOCIATES)

The response has been overwhelming: the concept of ORO has been accepted by serious UFOlogists throughout all parts of the world. It is my intention, from time to time, to utilize the medium of SAUCER SCOOP in order to keep all ORO members up to date on certain "critical areas" and projects that require in depth, on the spot, research.

For example, sporadic reports indicate that there are still strange and unexplained phenomena going on in TAMPICO, MEXICO. This particular location has long been a 'hot spot' so to speak. I am herewith putting the call out to all ORO members to consider a visit to Tampico sometime during the coming years. (I expect that the place will remain a "mystery spot" for quite a while to come!)

Specifically, reports coming into SCOOP indicate that there are certain similar goings on in the Tampico area that recall salient points of the so-called Shaver Mystery and the "Steve Brodie" story. (Many thanks to J. and M. R.)

SOMBRERO MOUNTAIN, some distance away from downtown Tampico has been the scene of entities taking into custody mountain climbers on Sombrero. Other (unfortunately second-hand) reports allege that there is a cleared spot on top of the Mountain in the form of a SQUARE! Obviously, those with a private plane can easily verify this.

Nonetheless, it is also alleged that Sombrero is no problem to climb. We are told that it could easily be done in a day! However, I do NOT think you would attempt it at night: there have supposedly been heard the sounds of machinery, like hydroelectric generating equipment coming from the caves and caverns at the top of Sombrero Mountain. Unfortunately, I am unable to verify any of this. If it is true, possibly it would be unlikely I would be here today! Nonetheless, for the adventurous and mature individual, I would suppose that Sombrero offers a little something out of the unusual -- and it COULD be possibly true!

Then there is the story - unconfirmed as yet by this author - of the melting of a bull dozer's treads by what may best be described as a UFO 'spy-disk' -- about the size, I would guess, of a football. Actually, two such disks appeared at the foot of the mountain and upon uniting together --- they cast a beam of light upon the treads of a bull dozer. We have been told that the treads not only MELTED --- but the drive shaft unaccountable either vaporized or was stolen! Quite a weight to lug off!

By the first of JUNE, the first ORO 'Hot' Report will be sent to all members. It will NOT be circulated among any other groups or publications. We do this for security reasons, as the data involved is considered Confidential. NOT to be re-printed or published.... SIGNED:

ANDREW BACHE

UFO REPORTS DWINDLE IN 1968 - Washington - The number of flying saucer sightings reported to Air Force investigators decreased substantially during 1968, the Pentagon said. The total for the year was 375, compared to 937 in 1967 and 1,112 in 1966. It was the smallest number of sightings for any year since 169 were reported in 1951, before the investigation got into big figures. Of the 1968 sightings, the Air Force attributed 37 to astronomical phenomena, 41 to aircraft, 38 to balloons and 84 to "other" explainable causes. Three were listed as "UNIDENTIFIED", 34 were under "investigation still pending" and 117 cases provided "insufficient data to reach a conclusion."

BARNEY HILL DIES - Portsmouth - Barney Hill, the postman who said he was taken aboard a UFO in the White Mountains, died here Tuesday night (Feb. 25, 1969). He and his wife Betty were captured while driving at night by creatures from outer space, they reported. They said they were taken aboard a UFO and later revealed the story while under hypnosis. The Hills were the subject of a book, "THE INTERRUPTED JOURNEY" by JOHN G. FULLER. Both appeared on numerous national and local TV ... Officials said Mr. Hill was stricken while at his home. He suffered a cerebral hemorrhage and died a short time later at Portsmouth Hospital. SOURCE: SAUCER MAGAZINE - Mark Bouge - Editor - 1911 Main St., Bellevue, Neb. SCOOPNOTE: Our deepest prayers to the family and Mrs. Hill. Perhaps, he NOW KNOWS --- what we do NOT. God's Rest, Barney...

LIMA, PERU - Mr. Carlos Paz Garcia, President of the IPRI (Instituto Purano de Relaciones Interplanetarias) announces that a DETECTING NETWORK for UFO's will be set up in Peru. He added that the plans for the detectors have already been received, and that the function of these modern apparatus is twofold. First, they catch the radiations of the UFOs and instantly take photographs of the flying objects. Mr. Gracia added further that they work with special electronic transistors, and that they are already in use in CHILE, BRAZIL, URUGUAY, etc. Also, that ARGENTINA would like PERU to join in a chain of international observers... LIMA -- ... Hundreds of people, among them two reporters and a police officer, watched a UFO for over an hour while it hovered in front of the beach, near Lima, causing great excitement.

SCRATCH ONE UFO! - METEORITE FALL AT PUEBLITO de ALLENDE, CHIHUAHUA, MEXICO: Preliminary Information --- Specimens from the meteorite fall at 1:05 Am on 8 February 1969 have been recovered. The meteorite is a chondrite (C3 and C4) with both opaque and microcrystalline matrices. Specimens were brought in to a low background gamma counter less than 4½ days after the fall, and gamma rays from short-lived isotopes have been observed... Thirteen fragments of it from three different localities were obtained during a 1 day reconnaissance of the area of the fall....

A VOICE FROM OUTER SPACE ??? An attorney, who lives in a state in the East and who does not want his name used for the usual reasons, was watching TV one evening when suddenly the screen went blank. Mr. "A" got up to see if he could tune his program back when a voice came from the TV saying the speaker was from outer space and would return the next evening at the same time.

The attorney went into the kitchen where his wife at once noticed his white face and insisted on knowing the reason for his obvious perturbed state. When he finally told her, she wanted to call a doctor as she thought he was out of his mind. He persuaded her to wait until the next evening when she could witness the same thing he had heard.

The two were waiting at the TV set at the specified time the next evening and again the screen went blank and the strange voice was heard. The couple refused to reveal the message they received...

FAMILY FLEES HEAT FROM UFO - In September 1968 a family in Melfort (Sask., Canada) heard a high pitched sound over their farmhouse. As the pitch increased the temperature in the house rose. The heat became so intense the family fled to the cellar. A neighbor reported seeing an object hovering over the farmhouse and another farmer saw three disc-shaped objects in the area... ..

A FLYING TENNIS BALL ! "When I was looking out of my window from my first floor flat, I accidentally caught sight of a small white ball - at the same size of a tennis ball. It drifted a few meters from my window." Lene Nielsen from Charlottenlund is telling. "The tennis ball moved very slowly through the air. It probably was drifting with the wind," the observer tells, "but I think that if this was the fact it would have "danced" a little more toward North - West. Because of the fact that it disappeared so quickly I presume that it speeded up! Something strange which I can only describe as a "tongue" darted at intervals out of the ball. It might have been reflections but the material which the ball was made of didn't look like anything reflectable because most all it looked like the material of which a tennis ball is made. When the ball disappeared behind the house I ran down into the garden but I couldn't see it anymore. I looked at the object for about 7 minutes I think." The observation took place on the 7th of July 1968 at 18:15 to 18:22 o'clock PM... LOCATION: CHARLOTTENLUND north of COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

PILOT REPORTS ON UFO SIGHTINGS - Thirty-five "aerials" connected with UFO's have been sighted in New Zealand - this report from the WELLINGTON BRANCH OF THE ROYAL AERONAUTICAL SOCIETY - and they were told this by a N.A.C. pilot who has done research since 1952, Captain B. L. Cathie, who said these "aerials" "metallic artifacts with knobs" - were in some cases hovering... These aerials were scattered throughout the world on a specific pattern... In N.Z. they were not disguised but blended into the landscape... ..

EDGAR CAYCE, THE BURMUDA TRIANGLE, AND THE CHARIOT OF THE LORD

BY

KENNETH LLOYD LARSON

Startling coincidences concerning Edgar Cayce During April, 1968 SAUCER SCOOP published an article that I wrote about the American mystic, Edgar Cayce (1877-1945). According to Cayce, he saw some type of aerial vehicle above his farm near Hopkinsville, Kentucky, with a figure in white, who told him that he was of "The Chariot of the Lord and thy horsemen thereof." This was during June, 1936. Cayce said that he had another vision as a child, wherein another personage (accompanied by a humming noise and brilliance) told him that his prayers had been answered. During the year 1940, Cayce predicted that Atlantis would arise from the ocean, with segments near the Bahama Islands and Florida.

Exactly one year later, the April, 1969, issue of the American magazine "SAGA" published a letter I wrote to the Editor, based upon data previously used in the article in SAUCER SCOOP. This letter concerned Cayce, the Bermuda Triangle (where about 100 ships and planes have disappeared), the predictions of Cayce, the rise of Atlantis, the disappearance of the 5 TBM planes from the coast of Florida, Dec. 5, 1945, Cayce's prediction of his own removal or passing away, etc. Oddly enough, the same issue of this magazine contained an article by another writer, concerning these same topics and Edgar Cayce, predictions, Atlantis, etc. Is it possible that these unusual coincidences have some new significance? After all, Cayce was a very religious person and attributes his gifts to the power of the Lord. If he was visited by an aerial vehicle, it could have been related to modern-day saucers and UFO's.

Furthermore, the American religious prophet Joseph Smith said that he had been visited by an aerial vehicle in New York State about March 22, 1820, with two personages saying they were of the Lord, and with the later appearance during Sept. 22, 1823, of an angel, who Smith said spoke to him about ancient America and its destiny. It is possible, then, that America has produced two great religious figures who can be considered prophets and mystics -- and in both cases, with the "Star of Bethlehem" object and the object that lead the Israelites during the Exodus, we seem to have unusual relationships concerning UFOs, America and the contacts with angels.

For these and other reasons, the saucers seem to have a religious and historical and "higher" level, plus a scientific angle (electro-magnetism, power units, gravity, etc.). The problem is to combine the two subjects. However, the data seems to show some relationship between UFO appearances (such as those to Edgar Cayce and Joseph Smith). Even the Bible states that the Lord does nothing without revealing it first to His servants... However, these were unusual in that the two ministers or teachers said that occupants or angels visited them, and told them of future events. On the other hand, the Rev. William Gill had a different experience on about June 27, 1959, when he and about 38 other witnesses saw three saucers hovering over the beach near Papua, New Guinea. In this case, 4 occupants came out on top of the nearest UFO-- but didn't speak to the witnesses but merely waved greetings, before disappearing... On this basis, one would have to study the statements of Joseph Smith and Edgar Cayce as to see what they had to say after being visited by the objects and the "angels" of the Lord.

MYSTERIOUS DISTRESS SIGNALS RECEIVED! JAN. 10, 1969 -- NORTH SEA - Signals coinciding with an unidentified blip on radar screens -- Radio messages picked up at THE HAGUE said the position of the aircraft was given as 22 miles off FLAMBOROUGH HEAD. HUMBER Radio reported the height of the aircraft as 30,000 feet. No known aircraft, civil or military were reported in that area. At LINDHOLME, radar observers saw objects crossing the North Sea which appeared to land in NORTH LINCOLNSHIRE. Police on the YOURSHIRE and LINCOLNSHIRE coastline ordered road patrols to maintain an aerial watch and ships in the North Sea were asked to keep a look-out for wreckage. Nothing was found and the object remained unidentified...

"Since October of 1967 the technicians operating the cosmic ray instruments of the "El Infiernillo" Observatory have been observing a series of luminous phenomena which need to be explained. To each of these phenomena we have given the code 'F.P.E.' (FENOMENO POR EXPLICAR) or P.R.E. (PHENOMENA REQUIRING EXPLANATION). These have the appearance of stars of magnitude zero to one, mobile and which halt in space. Some photographs taken during the static period of these luminous foci show luminous rings of Fresnel diffraction.

"The "EL INFIERNILLO" Observatory forms part of the Faculty of Physical Sciences and Mathematics of the University of Chile and is located at a height of 4,343 meters in the CORDILLERA de los ANDES whose geographic co-ordinates are latitude 33°10' S. and longitude 70°17' W. Its height allows of a probable geometrical observation of a meteorite 150 times greater than that of any ordinary city.

The attached photograph (attached to the report was a small photo) was taken from the Observatory at 01:35 hours G.M.T. on May 17, 1968 and is one of three photographs taken over a period of 60 minutes of a flickering light. The smaller light appearing above and to the left of the F.P.E. (P.R.E.) corresponds to that of the "El Roble Observatory" as is at a height of 2,000 meters.

The "CENTER of COSMIC RADIATION" prefers not to use the terms OVNIS, UFOS, or other terms in its search of an explanation of these possible natural phenomena." As a result of the photometric analysis of the observations carried out a project has been developed for the installation of a space scanning system camera whose cost, inclusive of a year operating cost is $35,000. This amount is being canvassed from various foreign and international institutions."

A complete report of this observation -plus the same photo as attached to the report - was published in the JULY-AUGUST, 1968 A.P.R.O. BULLETIN.....

A ROUGH STUDY OF FEEDING HEADS

by

'QUATTLEBAUM'

IDEAS: CONNECTION BETWEEN FLYING SAUCERS AND THE PHENOMENON LABELED AS GHOSTS.

I.E. Consider that UFO's are an intra-dimensional as well as an intra-spatial manifestation. Consider that the hollow earth theory deals not with a hole in the ground, but actually a hole in space and time, and that they represent the entrance and exit points of the UFO's. Consider that the location of these 'Holes' is not geographically limited, and that holes on a smaller scale say one that would be large enough for a single being to pass through could be effected anywhere.

Consider that all people who do see 'ghosts', nor are they witnesses to 'Ghostly' phenomenon, such as noises, touches, and voices. Consider that the people who do see ghosts are thought of as 'Having a veil over their eyes' or more psychic than the human norm. Consider the protective nature of the human mind; if the subconscious feels that the sanity of its host would be endangered in light of a given situation, it masks said situation to dispel or lessen the traumatic shock. In such a case, would the mind mask the apparition of a being emerging through a dimensional hole with the appearance of a dead loved one or friend - or, at a last resort, something that is recognizable as a human being?

If the passage through a dimension or time-space-warp is denied to a solid form into one that is etherial for a period of time, walls, doors, etc., would have no effect of hindering the passage of the solid form through whatever location, site, or situation exists in the dimension that is the point of destination. In order to validate this theory by papers and statistics and human research, a projection of years would have to be considered. But, we as human beings have at our disposal, the talents of those among us who are more than functional humans limited to one-tenth of their brain power. The assistance of the psychics must be sought in order to solve the mystery of UFO's in the shortest space of time. A psychic should be instructed to see a ghost as a ghost really is. If he communicates with a ghost, he must be asked to hear the words spoken as they are in actuality.

The non-psychic researcher can increase his psychic abilities with the use of drugs such as LSD. In such a case, the researcher should not attempt communication or visual manifestations on his first 'Trip'; things are too confusing and disorientated to allow a rational conclusion to be reached. (SCOOP wishes to note that we do NOT advocate usage of drugs - anytime, the Authors' opinions are his own.)

He must first become aware, through experience of the diversities of the drug's effects, and then learn to direct these effects toward the full use of his mind. As in the picture, "2001 - a Space Odyssey", the answer one seeks is beyond the pretty colors and forms. It should be stated, whether this theory is accepted or not, before we can find out the 'WHO' of flying saucers, we must first pin down the 'WHAT', and the use of people who are naturally or artificially psychic is the most convenient and finalizing tool at our disposal.

THINGS THAT GO BUMP IN THE NIGHT -

SPECULATION: Consider that the existence of deamons is a fact: not the fanciful fire-breathing devilets of Dark Age manuscripts but manifestations from a parallel world. In light of still discovering the nature of this phenomenon, we will use the term, 'negative images', in referring to it. The existence of these negative forces has been known only to an enlightened few human beings throughout the successive histories of mankind. They were and are the Magicians, Worlocks, Witches, and other dealers in the occult.

The true nature of negative forces and in dealing with them is still hidden in spurious magic symbols and incantations. Actually, they require but an awareness of their existence to be contacted and brought into conscious perception. Notice, there is no reference to 'belief' or 'Unbelief' - just an AWARENESS of the fact that they do exist - the mental establishing of a bridge between one's self and the inches-away negative world.

In dealing with the occult forces, the human mind involved must be strong. There can be no uncertainty about one's will power, for the danger involved is the loss of one's free will. Protection for the individual would come in the form of a complete reliance on the sub-conscious mind because it has the capabilities for both defense and offense, against what it considers a threat to the stability of the conscious mind. When the subconscious mind comes into an level with the conscious mind, there forms a firm bond between the two, and powers within the individual are brought into conscious perception for the individual's use because the subconscious mind has these powers and the close alliance of the two minds keeps it from being submerged again.

The signs to look for are changes in the personality or way of thinking that benefit the person. Decisions are made quicker, and understanding flashes into the mind like summer lightning. This state can be reached by long periods of meditation - somewhat painful because of the headaches induced by forcing dormant areas of the brain to become active again. The use of drugs such as marijuana or LSD is a form of a shortcut but it still involves mental effort in as much as the user must control his thoughts in a sea of confusing shapes, colors and what is called hallucinations. Here, I must contend that there are things seen under the influence of LSD that are not hallucinations. The drug, plus the forceful use of the mind affect the eye to the degree that things unnoticed by the normal eye are suddenly thrust into focus. The drug widens the color perceptive range of the eye and brings heretofore invisible things into view.

Some of these things brought into view are negative beings. The best way to describe them would be to say they are tenuous, transparent forms that the mind immediately classifies as being evil. This could be attributed to the fact that the negative images are so totally alien to any form of life we recognize that we might mistake revulsion for a sign of evil. It is one thing to sit in a movie or in front of the TV and watch a science-fiction picture filled with Hollywood monsters and not be afraid, but it is another thing to see something ten times more revolting to the senses right in front of your face moving toward you. The first sign that contact is being made is that the atmosphere seems to be hazy or slightly smoky, and you can notice the movement of things just outside the corner of your eye. The room seems alive with crawling and flying beings that are either invisible or whose movement is too fast for your eyes to catch exactly.

PSYCHOLOGICAL EFFECTS OF FUTURE OR PRESENT 'CONTACTEES' BY HANS LAURITZEN

In cases of psychological effects, it must be examined whether or not the 'Contactee' had psychological difficulties before the contact. If he had not, the psychological difficulties can be ascribed to the contact. So many 'silent' contactees have been taking place that we can see a pattern turn up. A typical case is this:

A person walks alone in a more or less deserted area -- a wood - or a park. Suddenly he hears a voice talking inside his head giving him a message or an advice. He usually calls it telepathy, but the signals are much stronger than ordinary telepathy. Sometimes no telepathic message is received. He often feels induced to walk a certain path, which he otherwise would not have followed.

Here he sees one or two globes - or disc-shaped objects usually rather dull. Often nothing is sighted. When he comes back from his walk, he finds that he is missing about 30 minutes of his time. What has happened to him during these 30 minutes, he does not know. In a few cases the person remembers having been aboard a space ship. Everybody can see that he has completely changed his behaviour. He now cares little about his social work using nearly all his time to spread the message. It is a message of love, peace, brotherhood and friendship often with a religious tendency. Seen from inside, the person feels his body and mind have changed and are changing. These changes are so great, that he is afraid to tell about them, as he fears that other people might do to him. If they knew what is going on inside him. His states of mind and emotions are intensified especially a kind of religious feeling. His bodily feelings are intensified, and he might experience quite a new pleasurable sexual feeling. But he does not talk about it.

When a person is hypnotized to do something and at the same time hypnotized NOT to do that, he experiences a complete psychic breakdown. Due to his increased suggestibility - the contactee experiences the same psychic breakdown, when he hears contradictory opinions. He discovers that he has NOT his FREE WILL. ... After the contact the person discovers, that he is extremely sensitive to electricity and electric equipment including radio and tv. After the contact, the person feels that something is moving up along his spine to his neck and the back of his head. Often after some time it causes a severe pain in his head... He might complain of these pains, but as he is afraid to be discovered, he will not tell that it started with something strange moving along inside him. Sometimes he has been told telepathically not to speak about it.

You can use everything above as a guide when investigating contactee and 'silent' contactee cases. It is especially important to ask him, WHAT he feels, and WHAT he experiences inside himself. As he is afraid to tell, you, you can inform him that thousands of persons have experienced the same things which he is experiencing, so that he can tell everything about it without fear. If he does not get some assurance, he will not tell you about what is going on inside his body and brain.

THINGS THAT GO BUMP IN THE NIGHT...

Some faint sound is present -- of voices calling your name as if from far off, and etherial whispers. The movement of these beings slowly gravitates toward the center of your vision, and you can see them go through the atmosphere like a bubble of air moves through the water. Now the subconscious begins to set up your warning and defense mechanisms.

"WHEN THE MIND AWAKENS" -- and a man is aware of the entire influences of all his senses, how different would this world appear? His vision would undergo a change that seems to be nothing more than the tightening or flaxing of the iris, and yet - yet, there are things like an 'aura' or a series of waves emanating from all objects within view -- with the strongest of these 'waves' coming from all living things. As time passes, the waves become more definite in outline and characteristics. Under mild drugs such as marijuana, they appear as streams of smoke or mist rising from people, and on stronger drugs, such as LSD, there seems to be a parallel world existing with this one.

The first hint of color in the 'waves' is a pale yellow that, with time, becomes a series of colors -- a rainbow effect, with a centrally located sphere of color just at the rear of a person's head. It should be noted that this is not the case of a mind being caught helplessly in the grip of subconscious visions or delusions because there must be an effort made on the part of the viewer before this phenomenon can be observed. With practice, the time lapse between wanting to observe these things and beginning to see them becomes less and less until it is almost instantaneous. But the key here is in WANTING to observe. When the mind and the man is involved in his 'Automatic' ways of working, talking, eating, etc., there is no manifestation of these 'waves'. The only time it is involuntary is when one is under the influence of LSD (with marijuana, it still takes an effort).

As the mind becomes more proficient in observing these things, one begins to notice fleeting outlines of human-like forms on the edge of his vision's periphery. And in rare instances, there are waves and auras where there are NO people. Hearing can become very acute with the same effort that applies to the vision.

There is an absence of 'voices' in the mind - unless a conscious effort of mental telepathy is made. The sense of taste and smell is also heightened. Though one loses a desire for food with the side effect that finds the body dictating to the mind exactly what type and taste of food should be consumed. At times, it becomes almost an obsession, and no other type of food will satisfy.

All two dimensional things such as photos, magazines, television, and even letters become three dimensional. An understanding of people and events becomes simple almost to the point of being ridiculously easy. Perhaps the main drawback, thus far, is an impatience with ignorance and a consuming urge to teach people to think. The FLYING SAUCER QUESTION can be understood and solved with little effort -- if one has a background of studying it. The answer is more in this earth and holes in the sky --- rather than Mars and holes in the North Pole.

"THE VANISHING VISITORS" - By Sungma Tenzing Lama - Buddhist UFO Research -
This incident occurred in 1912 when I was eight years old and lived in a suburb of Lologne, Germany. It has remained indelibly in my memory... ..

One afternoon I was looking out into the backyard from the window of our apartment. My mind was in no way keyed to the forces and the powers of the paranormal. I was merely looking out of a window to see what could be seen. Behind me was a large four - poster bed. I was alone in the room, but I felt compelled to turn around.

I did so ---- and saw, sitting against the posts of the bed, two strange creatures, which could not have been more than three and a half feet tall if standing. They looked exactly alike, and they had features like humans and skin of a lightbrown texture. They did not smile and therefore I could not see if they had any teeth.

If they wore clothing, it must have been the same color as their skin worn tightly over their bodies. It appeared to me, however, that my strange visitors were naked! I do not know how long the creatures had studied me before I turned but after we had gazed at each other for a minute a fantastic thing happened. Apparently having realized that I was able to see them, they faded slowly into invisibility before my astonished eyes. I never saw them again - but that may be because they have been careful to remain invisible when around me. I have always wondered whether my strange visitors were extra-terrestrials, possible crew members of a flying saucer, although I saw no saucer at the time of the experience!

"DADDY LONGLEGS" SPACECRAFT DISCOVERS EARTH 'BROADCASTS'! - Washington -
Dated: April 22, 1969 - A spacecraft with antennas taller than the Empire State Building has discovered that the EARTH emits bursts of A.M. (amplitude modulation) radio signals which are a mystery to science.

This was disclosed yesterday by Dr. Robert G. Stone of the Goddard Space Flight Center, Greenbelt, Md., of N.A.S.A. The LOW-FREQUENCY signals are similar to those detected in the past from the giant planet JUPITER. The spacecraft, Radio Astronomy Explorer 38, was launched last July 4, in orbit 3,640 miles above the Earth it extended tubular antennas measuring 1,500 feet from tip to tip. Purpose of the experiment was to study low-frequency radio signals from space which cannot penetrate Earth's atmosphere.

Dr. Stone reported results at the spring meeting of the U. S. National Committee of the International Union of Radio Science, being held here in conjunction with the annual meeting of the American Geophysical Union.

In the low frequency - Explorer 38 was designed to measure frequencies including the AM broadcast band on earth --- "The Earth looks very much like Jupiter to us," Dr. Stone reported. He suggested the spacecraft's information will help scientist's understand better both Jupiter, the most massive of the Sun's four large planets, and Earth, the biggest of the five small planets....
SCOOPNOTE: Wonder if the Jupiterians appreciate having a 'sound-alike'!

AN OPE LETTER: To the President; Richard M. Nixon and others.....
(SCOOP reprints the following from: PROCEEDINGS - GEORGE W. VAN TASSEL - Director
PO BOX 458, Yucca Valley, California. We felt that Mr. Van Tassell's remarks are quite important AND interesting.)

... In my own field of endeavor, inspired by a God-given desire to leave this planet better than I found it when I was born, I now ask the question of all of you. Why have electro-magnetic and radiesthesia sciences been ignored, suppressed, and withheld from their beneficent usage over the past 50 years? I offer the following data to prove these things are known. The fact that they are not in use proves they have been suppressed.

The latest of these great accomplishments has just been revealed. I present this first because everyone is aware of the flight of APOLLO 8 around the Moon. What is presented here is only a small portion of the whole research. The principle of its operation is the important thing, because it verifies and expands other research done over the years. The man responsible for this device deserves international recognition for a breakthrough even as fantastic as the APOLLO 8 flight.

The device recorded the intensity of reactions of every gland and organ in the bodies of the three astronauts, Borman, Lovell, and Anders; from two days before lift-off until two days after splashdown in the Pacific Ocean. It was recorded WITHOUT RADIO, or telemetry transmission from any transmitters aboard APOLLO 8. The amazing fact is the transmission continued to be received while the capsule was on the back side of the moon - when all radio transmission could not be received on Earth.

The preliminary report, "Tracking the Astronauts in Apollo 8" can be had by writing to "Advanced Sciences Research and Development Corporation", Lakemont, Georgia, 30552. The price is $2.00 plus postage. This report was sent to me by one of the men who was largely responsible for its success.

The tuning in to the three astronauts is accomplished in the device by radiation from photographs of each of the three men. Distance did not seem to be a factor in the strength of the signals received. This verifies, in principle, the magnetic-ion activities here in our 'Integratron' relative to living bodies. We have long contended that every atom radiates energy relative to its composition. Every gland and organ, or body, is composed of octaves of emanation from its atomic make-up. The PHOTOGRAPH of anyone includes the RADIATIONS of the INDIVIDUAL as well as the reflection of light off of them externally. Zoler and Kelsh of "Radiophy Inc." in Hollywood, proved this. DeLaWar, Drown, Abrams, Lakhovsky, Crile, and many others, devised instruments in part that paralleled this astronaut tracking device, though not in such completeness. Louis Pasteur established some of these principles in 1862, although he was recognized mostly for his pasteurized milk process.

This astronaut tracking device proves that every living body emanates radiations from all of its parts according to their atomic charge of composition... ..

COMMENTS ON THE CONDON REPORT:

It was interesting to note that the Condon Report stated "there was no evidence to indicate that space ships are coming here from any other solar systems." Now wasn't that statement a cutie. This is supposed to mean there aren't any space ships - but - did you grasp the fact that this negative statement did not include the other planets in our own solar system? Why did they word it that way, to exclude our own solar system? You see, this leads you to believe and leaves them an out in a few years, when it becomes known that Venus and Mars are both occupied. The Air Force knows this, so do I.

Among the many people who come to my airport is one who runs a computer on radio telescope data. He says the officials have known since we first had radio telescopes that Mars and Venus are beehives of UFO activity. Four airline pilots that I know, have had close encounters with UFO's. One of them for a period of 20 minutes. One of them was over Washington, D. C. with UFO's all around the airliner he was flying into the Capitol in 1952, when the headlines all over the country said, "Strange Objects Over Capitol"... A test pilot in 1955 told me of chasing a saucer-shaped ship for 35 minutes in an F-86 jet. ..I talked personally with an Air Force Captain in 1953 that was assigned to remove the bodies from a downed saucer near Aztec, New Mexico. He told his story to over a hundred Air Force Reserve Pilots in a Legion Hall in Hollywood in 1953, at the request of his superiors.

The Major in charge of UFO investigation for the Air Force, came and told me openly of a grounded saucer he had personally seen, in 1953. You see I know the Air Force knew the answers then, because they told me. This was before the "hush-hush" security they clamped on UFO's in 1954. Now they have wasted $530,000 of the tax payer's money to continue to fool the people. This is fraud. David Saunders said the Edwards Air Force Base case, and others that could be conclusive proof, were not turned over to the Condon Committee, in spite of the fact that one of the Committee tried a number of times to get these cases from the Air Force. I know of these cases personally, not because I went investigating to find out, but because authority came to me to discuss it - and there were witnesses that they were here. Why did they come here to talk to an airport operator that had been in aviation since 1927? Because they knew my background and they knew I knew, because of the space-ship that landed here in 1952. The F.B.I. men who came here asked me, at the time, to phone them if any other "strange things" happened in this area. Does this sound like they thought I was dreaming?.... Now in 1969 they are still spending tax-payer's money like water, to try to keep the public thing they can't give the answers because they still don't know the answers.

The sightings will continue all over the world as they had in Madrid, Spain, while the Condon Report was being compiled. Thousands saw the space ship over Madrid. It was photographed. Jets went up to look at it. It was higher than they could fly. This went on for 2 hours.

Since this issue is an open letter, I wonder what the cover-up policy will be from Condon's time on, as the sightings continue to occur throughout the world? Officialdom is either being mis-informed by their advisors... or they are being given wrong information intentionally.....

VIBRATIONS, POWER SITES AND QUARTZ CRYSTALS

by

- ARTHUR SHUTTLEWOOD -

-(The author, a British features editor and journalist, is a writer of two books on UFO's — 'THE WARMINSTER MYSTERY' and 'WARNINGS FROM FLYING FRIENDS')

First conceived in the human mind, the channel through which flows a minute proportion of the original vibrational WORD marking the good beginning of the Universe and all material things -- from bricks to buildings, from highways to transport, from carpets to clothing, from runway to aircraft, from launching pads to satellites -- all have specific forms, lives and purposes.

However, these can be transmuted by application of certain exterior forces of intensified sound, light and heat, or by alien stimulation. Colour can also be an external agent to produce subtle reaction and change in the physical or chemical content of manufactured articles.

Yet nothing which is created is ever lost, as Nature amply demonstrates in simple illustrations or reproduction and rebirth, decayed leaves and scattered seedlings settling down eventually to the rythm of fresh life born underground - changing form from the sadly fallen to the gloriously risen to full natural requirements.

Formation of new patterns that emerge under the impact of outside influences equips a re-developed form for renewed life and purpose on the industrial or domestic front. This same applies to natural things on a wider scale. For example, once energy is initially set in motion it cannot be destroyed.

It simply alters from one form to another when external forces are introduced in close proximity or when it is deliberately diverted from original objective. Everything is subject to and capable of radical or moderate change under fluctuating conditions and circumstances - even that most precious of Cosmic commodities -- human life.

It applies, too, to a radioactive mineral that slowly breaks down and gives off harmful radiations in the process, although this comes into a different category. These lessons, and many more, are being learned by pioneers in modern fields of scientific study and research. Which brings us a step nearer the puzzling heart of the UFO mystery, indirectly.

For there is a theory relating to Stone Age monuments which could quite feasibly fit in with important aspects of spacecraft propulsion, especially in connection with boosting drives obviously needed by celestial chariots, after an actual landing on terra firma.

Solar ray storage or electromagnetic energy harnessing may be dissipated by earthing principles when landings are affected. From our experienced of extraterrestrial airships at CRADLE HILL, WARMINSTER, we have noticed that hovering spacecraft rarely touch the ground, instead tilting oddly from side to side several feet above soil or treetop level.

- CONTINUED -

This indicates the desire of the occupants to avoid disconnection from power supplies once touchdown is achieved. Yet a craft landing near Stonhenge blacked-out entirely on an autumn night of 1968, before becoming a ring of fire that evidently shot out from the stones themselves, whereupon the UFO sped upward from our curious approach.

It is more than ever probable that these craft operate on a minor system comparable to that of a planet, generating their own electro-magnetic-gravitational fields and working on an imbalance basis. At rest they do not rotate, but they rotate or spin under a controlled fashion with a central liquid core, so as to generate their fields and thus move naturally within the magnetic fields of Earth and space generally.

It appears that evidence collected over eighteen years might alter present thinking on these mute and mysterious mounds and circles of stone, for it is now strongly suspected that they comprise a gigantic network of power potential when tapped at the right vibratory pitch.

All such monuments in Britain may be aligned in a single geometrical pattern. This is the belief of JOHN WILLIAMS, a solicitor living at Abergavenny, in Monmouthshire, Wales, who has carefully compared the positions of more than 3,000 pre-historic stone circles and single standing stones on ordinance survey maps.

He submits that every one is aligned to its neighbor's up to twenty miles away at an angle of twenty-three and a half degrees. Over the years since 1951, he has taken thousands of PHOTOGRAPHS of standing stones and thinks he has discovered a significant clue to their use at various stages in the history of Man.

A surprising number of photographs he took suffered from what seemed to be unfortunate fogging, and marring of negatives and prints. He thought nothing more of this filming set-back for years, putting it down to bad camera work. But in 1959 he and a friend photographed the same timeworn batch of ancient stones near Brecon. Both operated similar type cameras and film, and the dismissed setback of 1951 was recalled.

The developments were rather startling in effect. Both pictures came out with a fogged band across them in identical sections of stone. The pictures were taken in colour and the fog-band was a distinctive dark blue.

Something in the composition or nature of the stone, some hidden quality, was spoiling the film. It was a kind of ultra-violet light. Since then, a friend told me, John has experienced more examples of the same peculiar phenomenon when employing colour film, although cameras are free of fault. Patiently, he sought to establish the cause-- and ascertained after exhausting investigation that all these prehistoric standing stones contain DARK QUARTZ, some being heavily impregnated. This is a crystal substance similar to that used in conjunction with the old-fashioned 'cat's whisker' in early types of wireless receivers. John reasonably deduced that the stones therefore form a giant POWER NETWORK, although admitting he cannot guess for what purpose. He is not a Ufologist, yet his research efforts offer further clues to the earnest UFO buff who seeks no reward other than the satisfying of curiosity about people from other worlds and - thankfully - there is an increasing number of these volunteers nowadays, stepping on ground where Governments perhaps, fear to tread, in case their feet get burnt in contact with a great unknown!

(This article to be concluded in the JUNE issue of SCOOP.)

THE PUBLIC RELATIONS PROBLEM
by JOHN A. KEEL

Now that the study of serial phenomena is beginning to achieve a higher degree of respectability, ufologists must recognize that their growing responsibilities must supercede their devotion to the "cause". We must find rational and meaningful ways in which to present the UFO problem to the public. The single-minded fanaticism which once dominated the field must be replaced by a dignified public posture. The Air Force has made a mess of their Public Relations (PR) over the UFO issue and many of the civilian UFO groups have made the same mistakes; their loud-mouthed accusations and frenetic circulation of half-baked speculations have contributed to the ridicule which has surrounded the subject for years.

Responsible ufologists now have an opportunity to alter their somewhat disgraceful "public image". My long experience in journalism, radio and TV has given me an extensive background in PR and I suggest the following approaches to improving our public position.

(1) Many UFO organizations have long used titles which automatically brand them as "nut groups" to the skeptical public. Names such as "THE INTER-PLANETARY RESEARCH COMMISSION", "THE OUTER SPACE STUDY COMMITTEE", etc. should be discarded and replaced by more rational sounding names such as "ATMOSPHERIC PHENOMENA STUDY GROUP" or "THE ORGANIZATION for the study and analysis of paranormal events". Editors and Washington officials have frequently shown me their "nut" mail, written on fancy letterheads displaying titles containing damning words such as "Extraterrestrial", "Interplanetary", etc. Such letterheads usually condemn the writer and the letters are not taken seriously. The words "Flying Saucer" should also be avoided. UFO is permissible provided the title clearly stresses a "scientific" study. Words such as "phenomenon" are preferable. If you want to be taken seriously, your group must have a non-kook title.

(2) Controversy is necessarily based upon speculative conclusions which can not be satisfactorily documented. We should try to diminish the unnecessary controversies surrounding the subject by avoiding unsubstantiated conclusions. When appearing on radio or TV, avoid such terms as "spaceships", "mother-ships", etc. These sound like utter nonsense to many. Stick with "object" "UFO", "circular craft", "cigar-shaped object", and other descriptive yet non-committal phrases.

Be very careful in expressing your own opinions...lest you ruin your local image. Use the old buck-passing technique by quoting others. For example, you might explain that NICAP has long believed that UFOs are extraterrestrial probes. Or that APRO had advanced the speculation that some UFOs may be hostile to us. Discuss statistics whenever possible. Skeptics have a rough time arguing with statistics. Newspapermen and the like are more impressed with statistics than with individual cases.

Prepare valid statistical data for your own area so that you can declare:
"In the past five years, 250 people in the Podunk, Iowa area have reported seeing unidentified flying objects. Of these, 74 were clearly described as circular metallic aircraft of some kind. Among the witnesses were 22 police officers, 2 pilots, 4 doctors and one mayor." Presentations such as these will stun your critics into silence. But if you merely try to discuss a single case or two, they can pick it apart, discuss what it might have been, debate the reliability of the witnesses, and drag in other side issues.

If you are confronted with critics who bring up the Air Force statistics, whip out your copy of the APRIL 15, 1966, Washington hearing and show the AF statistics printed there-in. There are no less than 22 mistakes in common addition in those statistics.

The main columns don't even add up correctly. If you don't have a copy of that (the AF finally caught the mistakes and corrected the tables in later releases, shamelessly juggling many of the figures so they would add up), turn to page 233 of CAPTAIN LOFTIN'S "IDENTIFIED FLYING SAUCERS", or to a copy of the BLUE BOOK release for 1967, and show how the main columns have been incorrectly added by the Air Force. Point out that since no one in the Air Force can even add, you can't take any of their statistics seriously.

(3) Never publicly express a negative opinion about any witnesses. If you have reservations about the character, honesty or sanity of a local witness, keep your ideas to yourself and hedge by saying that the case is "still under study".

Some groups have mistakenly labeled important cases "hoaxes" because they were misled or lacked the background necessary to make a valid judgement. Don't cry "hoax" unless you have very solid proof.

Remember that some significant events are deliberately engineered so that they seem to be a hoax to inexperienced investigators. The Glassboro, New Jersey landing of 1964 was one such case.

If you expect people to report their sightings to you it is necessary that you build up your local reputation as a serious, intelligent investigator. We can all contribute to the job of making UFOs respectable.

THE TOPSTONE! BY KENNETH LLOYD LARSON -- NOW ON SALE! 112 pages - with 51 drawings pertaining to certain UFO report-sites and the engineering design and location of the GREAT PYRAMID! Constructed around 2588 B.C., the building consists of a 4-sided structure, with a square base, with the slides sloping up to the top. The TOPSTONE is NOW MISSING, and certain historical writers suggest that it may never have been positioned....With his knowledge of mathematics and design, the architect of the GREAT PYRAMID may have buried the missing topstone at a pre-selected site on the plateau around the building. The "key" to its correct location in the ground may be determined by an analysis of the architects plans and designs. The Author of this book presents his drawings and opinions as to just where it could be, as he shows how certain UFO report-sites form Mathematical-Orthetenic patterns -- thus possibly showing the reason and the ancient knowledge of the Universe, UFO reports and the Earth...
